Section B: (Complete this section if your spring 2020 academic performance was COVID-19 related)

Circumstances related to an outbreak of COVID-19 include, but are not limited to, the illness of a student or family member, difficulty transitioning to online learning, or the general disruption resulting from the COVID-19 outbreak. Please indicate the courses and associated credit hours affected.

*Please include your statement on a separate page if more space is needed.

Section C:

Please explain why you were previously unable to meet Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements. Be specific as to what factors caused your academic difficulties. Reasons for a review of your record may include extenuating circumstances such as: medical issues, death in the family, or other family crisis. You must submit documentation to support your particular situation (i.e. hospital bills, letter from doctor, obituary, etc.). Also, moving forward, indicate how you will improve your academic performance. Outline the changes you might have made in your personal, social, or economic situation that will allow you to improve your future academic success. Additional sheets may be attached if necessary.

*Please include your statement on a separate page if more space is needed.

Section D: I certify that the information given on this form and on any attached pages is true and accurate.
